Request for Permission to Publish Pictorial Materials

I hereby request permission to reproduce and publish the following pictorial items physically owned by San Francisco Public Library:
 Photo of Leo J. Meyberg Co. San Francisco business in 1950; .b10220227, LCCN ACC-7165

I wish to use the material for the following purpose (article, dissertation, book, e-book, film/video, exhibit, website, non-editorial; calendars, cards, book covers, etc.) Please include a title and description of the project: An archival article on the California Historical Radio Society website (www.californiahistoricalradio.com/library) displaying a 1921 Meyberg radio parts sales bulletin #1000, for which the photo will be an illustration.

I understand that the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or of other reproductions of copyrighted materials. It is not my intention to publish or otherwise reproduce any of the materials listed on this form which are possibly subject to copyright without first having obtained written permission from (a) the copyright owner, the heirs, or assigns and (b) from San Francisco Public Library, owner of the original materials.

The San Francisco History Center at the San Francisco Public Library charges a fee for visual materials used in publication, production and exhibit. The fee is $15.00 for each image, one-time use only. I understand that permission to publish is contingent upon payment of the fee. $15 paid ck # 2081
